BEER CHIEF JUDGE'S REPORT - TONY JONES

On behalf of the 2019 Royal Adelaide Beer and Cider Awards Committee and all the judges, I warmly welcome you to this year's awards. This year saw significant changes to the process, as the growing number of beer entries required the use of three simultaneous beer panels to complete assessment within the allocated two days. In addition, we successfully employed a newly developed e-judging program for the first time to judge both cider and beer. These initiatives have prepared RABCA to cope with the increasing interest in the RABCA in future years. The awards aim to recognise the importance of high quality and uniqueness of these products and provide an opportunity for producers to reach new markets, both locally and interstate. Once again this year, our judges noticed an increase in the quality of the entries, with a higher number of beers falling within the high bronze to mid silver range, whilst attaining gold remained, as it should be, a tough challenge. This year the broad Ale category attracted most entries, with Pales and IPAs particularly prolific, and the collective Stout class also very popular. Again, I was most ably assisted by my co-panel leaders in beer Simon Fahey and Stephen Nielsen and by Mel Fettke on cider. Our judges came from the Australian across brewing and cider industry and our thanks go to all the companies who allowed their valuable employees the time off to spend judging on a voluntary basis. The judges assessed and scored each exhibit on their commercial excellence, their quality attributes and their trueness to type. Each exhibit was assessed and scored individually and privately, with entrants to receive this personalised feedback. Judges use a 20-point scoring system, and the score which determines which exhibits are awarded medals. To attain a medal of any colour is indeed an achievement to be proud of and I congratulate all medallists as well as trophy winners on their achievement. I also take this opportunity to thank all the sponsors, judges, stewards and exhibitors that contribute to making these awards a success. I also thank our hardworking Awards Committee, and all involved at the RA&HS. A special thanks also to our extra hard-working Events Manager, Katie Johnson and the RA&HS team who continue to make a complex task look easy. I look forward to seeing you all at the Beer and BBQ Festival.

Cheers,

Tony Jones

Chief Beer Judge 2019

CIDER CHIEF JUDGE'S REPORT - MELISSA FETTKE

Thank you to our well-oiled team of stewards, who ensured each entry was given adequate time to be fully assessed by the judging panel. Thanks also to the staff of the RA&HS, who once again ran a seamless show, which is always enjoyable to be a part of.

Cheers,

Melissa Fettke

Chief Beer Judge 2019

Cider is the world's fastest growing drinks category, and in support of this growth, the quality and variety of ciders on the market has increased. This year's competition showed a variety of cider styles, with great examples being found in all categories. It was great to see the only Gold Medal being awarded to an apple cider in the Modern, Medium Sweet category, as this is the cider style most Australians would be familiar with. Medals were awarded to 68% of entries into this year's competition – 11 Bronze, 9 Silver and 1 Gold. Well done and thank you to all exhibitors who entered.

This year the judging team were using an online judging program, rather than our traditional pencil and paper, and this made judging more efficient. There were a few hiccups whilst we got used to the new technology, but fortunately there were many RA&HS staff on hand to help us through any minor difficulties.

THANK YOU TO OUR 2019 JUDGES AND STEWARDS

We believe that craft
beers deserve crafted glasses.

These are our CRAFT BEER glasses.

The Spiegelau Craft Beer Glasses have been approved by an expert tasting panel of master brewers and industry professionals. Focusing on beer enjoyment, members of the tasting workshop tested multiple glass shapes to find the best glass for India Pale Ale, Stout, and American Wheat Beer.

In the experts' opinion, the custom-shaped glasses successfully deliver the complexity of aromas on the nose, while demonstrating the optimum beer texture, balance, and flavour intensity on the palate.

Staying faithful to the spirit of Bavarian artisan craftsmanship, we have created these unique, functional glasses to bring out the best in complex craft beers.
